Why Bydgoszcz?

Bydgoszcz is the eighth largest city in Poland (over 350,000 inhabitants), the administrative capital of the Kujawsko-Pomorskie Voivodeship. Together with Toruń, it forms the Bydgoszcz-Toruń agglomeration, inhabited by nearly 800,000 people. The city is a leader of a dynamically developing region, performing numerous social and economic functions. Significant advantages of the city, translating into its attractiveness for investors from the business services sector, are the transport location and high quality of human capital. Bydgoszcz is a city with a huge potential, pursuing a strategy designed to ensure that it is equally friendly to residents and entrepreneurs.

ECONOMY

The population of Bydgoszcz is primarily young and educated society, providing human resources for local businesses. Moreover, excellent work quality and competitive remuneration standards are one of the important factors taken into account by entrepreneurs when choosing their business location. An additional asset is the diverse economic structure and wellfunctioning business environment.

INVESTMENT INCENTIVES

- Economic Zone - income tax exemption of up to 55% of the investment cost incurred in the Bydgoszcz subzone of the Pomeranian Special Economic Zone.
- Property tax exemption under the regional investment aid for a period of 3 years, depending on the number of newly created workplaces.
- Support instruments offered by the Labour Office: reimbursement of costs related to equipping new workplaces.
- Investor support from the Bydgoszcz Regional Development Agency.
