Vote for Gdansk!

2017-01-26 08:38:09

Gdansk is the only city in Poland has been nominated in the competition for the title of “European Best Destination 2017”.

Gdańsk guarantees a unique atmosphere and a unique experience. The atmosphere comes from the old and beautiful historic monuments and the scent of the sea. Tempting shops and 20 kilometres of beaches. Cultural events and nature reserves that cannot be found anywhere else. Restaurants, cafes and clubs and the spirit of freedom and tolerance which has emerged many times over the thousand-year multi-national history of Gdańsk - this is how the editors of the tourist guide Lonely Planet described the attractiveness of Gdansk. This opinion is also shared by tourists. In the summer of last year nearly 770 thousand guests from all over the world visited Gdansk and the average score from their stay was 8.8/10 points.

Every year in the European Best Destination competition participates cities that tourists most willing visit and have a very good reputation on the Internet - this year the competitors of Gdansk are cities such as Amsterdam, Berlin, Milan, Paris, Vienna, London, Madrid and Budapest.

Gdansk is the only candidate from Poland, thus voting for Gdansk you are also showing appreciation for our country. You can vote via the portal www.visitgdansk.com from 20 January to 10 February 2017.
